Valentine's Day we celebrated with a wonderful steak dinner prepared with love from our talented dinning room team. Tables were dressed in red with the napkins folded as roses. Everyone enjoyed the evening of love and stayed warm with great friends and interesting conversations. ❤️ ❤️ ❤️

Special Election

The special election will be held March 3. The election is to determine a new state senator for district 27. The district is comprised of Bourbon, Fleming, Harrison, Lewis, Mason, Nicholas, Robertson, and Rowan counties. The senate seat was vacated by Walter Blevins, who resigned to be Rowan County judge-executive.

Candidate Kelly Caudill stopped by to visit during lunch one afternoon. He went around and introduced himself to the residents and answered some questions.

Several of the residents voted by absentee ballots but the van will run on the 3rd for those that would like to go vote.

Travel the Globe

We have been traveling the globe with our residents. The residents have been taking us along with them as they share their memories of adventures through different states, countries and bodies of water. The "guide" for each session recalls where they have gone and some share pictures and souvenirs. So far, we have traveled through the Panama Canal, to Ireland, Spain, Acapulco and Niagara Falls.

We look forward to all our many travels to come.

Dr. Pawsat will be here this month, but at print time I did not have the exact date. Please watch your in house mailbox for further information. I will also put out a signup sheet on the table in the dining room. Thank you!
